

Our Goals

- Operate based on principles of collaboration, coordination, best practices and leadership development.
- Identify factors that impact and influence the health status of rural communities.
- Raise public awareness of rural health issues.
- Advocate for and develop rural health resources.
- Promote communication and collaboration among healthcare providers, government agencies and other organizations.
- Provide information and analysis regarding the rural perspective to legislators, law makers and rural health providers.
- Provide meaningful educational programs and events.
- Develop, organize and sustain the organizational infrastructure of NYSARH.

Member Benefits

- Direct, exclusive briefs on key state, regional, and federal rural health policies and programs.
- Discounts on registration fees for all NYSARH events, including the Annual Conference.
- Updates on resources, events and activities affecting rural health professionals and consumers through electronic communications.
- Network with rural health leaders to further the mission of your own organization at NYSARH events.

NYSARH

New York State Association for Rural Health

*Preserving & improving health in rural
New York State.*

Our Mission

The mission of the New York State Association of Rural Health (NYSARH) is to lead and collaborate on issues affecting the health and well being of New York's rural residents.

Who We Are

The NYSARH is a not-for-profit, nonpartisan, grassroots organization working together to preserve and improve health in rural New York State.

Who We Serve

On many different levels, NYSARH serves individuals, consumers of health, non profit organizations, government agencies and officials, healthcare facilities, emergency services, human services, long-term care organizations, businesses, universities, foundations, associations, and many other stakeholders in rural health.

Membership Categories

NYSARH offers three categories of Membership:

Individual Membership for rural health advocates, consumers, and community representatives.

Organizational Membership for health care facilities, nonprofit organization, educational institutions, government agencies, associations, corporations, businesses, consultants and other service or product-based organizations that support the rural health care industry.

Student Membership for students enrolled full time in an educational institution.

Value & Services

ADVOCACY:

Be a voice in advocating for state and federal health policies and funding programs that improve quality of life and economic vitality of rural New York.

PROFESSIONAL & COMMUNITY NETWORKING:

Learn about resources, obtain data, talk to experts and form liaisons with rural health leaders to further the mission of your own organization at NYSARH events.

INFORMATION:

Access facts and resources on a variety of rural health issues through electronic communications, and/or links to state and national resources.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT:

Hear from recognized experts on a variety of rural health topics and obtain the latest information on state and federal legislative and regulatory issues at the annual conference.

